

Cole Park

0.5 miles

Easy

This easy, flat, smooth, and short trail is on the banks of the Connecticut River. It is an out-and-back trail, with a river loop at the outer end, all in the woods. At the far end of the loop, there are nice views of the river and some log benches.

Directions: The park is located off Route 10 between West Lebanon and Hanover, NH.

From the green in Hanover, NH, head south on Route 10 1.7 miles. Turn right onto East Wilder Road and follow it 0.9 miles to its end, past East Wilder Road Professional Park. The park and trailhead are in the woods.

From the intersection of Route 4 and Main Street in West Lebanon, NH, go north on Route 10 2.1 miles. Turn left onto East Wilder Road and follow the road 0.9 miles to its end, past East Wilder Road Professional Park. The park and trailhead are in the woods at the end of the road.

Parking: Parking is available at the trailhead.

Uses: Trail is open to foot traffic and cross-country skiing. No motorized vehicles; no bicycles. Pets are allowed.

Ownership/Maintenance: Cole Park is owned by the City of Lebanon and is conserved through an easement held by the Society for the Protection of New Hampshire Forests. The Upper Valley Land Trust has Executory Interest in the property.
