

Hartland Winter Trails - Hartland, VT

A linked network of trails offering varying degrees of challenge.

Uses: Ski and snowshoe (winter use) ONLY.

Ownership: This trail crosses private property and is available for non-motorized wintertime public use through the generosity of approximately 25 individual landowners. Please respect landowners' privacy, stay on the trail, and Leave No Trace. Hartland Winter Trails, a volunteer organization, manages the trail in cooperation with the Hartland Recreation Department. (www.hartlandwintertrails.org)

Distance: Approximately 12.5 miles (20K) of groomed trails

Directions

From Hartland, follow Route 12 to Hartland Four Corners and turn right onto Mace Hill Road. In about a quarter of a mile take the first left onto Linden Road, entering the Cobb Hill Cohousing property, with its barns and silos directly ahead. Parking is to the right, across from the sheep barn. Parking is also available across from the Hartland Fire Station, Route 12 (between 3-Corners and 4-Corners). From this point, follow the marked and groomed trail.

Description

These cross-country skiing and snowshoeing trails provide a unique opportunity to meander through fields and back woods, over gently rolling to steep terrain in the Three- and Four-Corners areas of Hartland, Vermont. Trail maps and envelopes for donations are available in the sign-in boxes. The trails are all on private properties, created and maintained by volunteers, open to the community free of charge. Please be sure to stay out of the groomed track with snowshoes, and keep dogs leashed at all times and out of the prepared track!
